

Prevent Epidemics Theory of Change

INPUTS

In-country partner expertise

Strategic, legal and communications technical assistance

Human resources

Funding

ACTIVITIES

OUTPUTS CIVIL SOCIETY / GOVERNMENT

OUTCOMES

Map allies to engage in a broadbased coalition of advocates, including policy champions and key decisions-makers in government

Capacity strengthening workshops for epidemic preparedness budget advocacy

Policy forums and symposia with decision-makers in government (MPs. MDAs. regulatory bodies, and staff) and nongovernmental actors (CSOs, health professionals, academia, and youth advocates)

Coordination of CSO inputs to public hearings and mediumterm development plans, policy frameworks and political manifestos events, journalism fellowships, masterclasses, awards, opeds and sponsored stories to increase public and political

Media engagement through awareness of epidemic preparedness and the need for funding

Social media messages, content development

Budget analysis to identify baseline funding and gaps

Tracking of health security disbursements and utilization budget allocations, opportunities for inputs during budget development phases,

CSOs, policy champions, and key decisions-makers in government identified and policy objectives and advocacy strategy for epidemic preparedness developed

CSOs and NAPHS MDAs trained in the budget formulation and submission process

Strategies and tools developed for grassroots and political engagement, including policy papers, statements and event communique

CSO inputs submitted to the relevant agencies for the development of government agenda and policy planning

COMMUNICATIONS

Journalists trained in epidemic preparedness reporting, awards bestowed; op-eds and stories published

Weekly messages posted on social media and content developed

Budget phases and timelines used to inform advocacy strategies and activity timing

Health Security Accountability Framework developed and populated with relevant data

Advocacy coalitions formed and functioning collaboratively towards agreed policy objectives and engaging key government decision-makers

Strengthened capacity for epidemic preparedness advocacy and budget requests submitted by NAPHS MDAs

Awareness raised for health security, financing and policy actions

CSO inputs contribute to the development legislation, regulations and government priorities

Increased knowledge and awareness of health security and demand for epidemic preparedness funding

Social media conversations boosted, increased awareness and demand for epidemic preparedness funding

BUDGET PROCESS

New and/or increased funding sources and mechanisms (ex. budget allocations, budget lines, public health emergency fund)

Improved sustainability, accountability and utilization of health security budgets

IMPACT

Increased political will, country ownership and domestic investments in epidemic preparedness